

The MultiFaith Council of NW Ohio Presents

Third Annual MultiFaith Harvest Festival

May Toledo Become a City of Faith Gardens

Sunday, September 25, 2011, 3:30 - 6:00 PM

Glenwood Lutheran Church

2545 Monroe Street, Toledo, OH 43620

Next to the Toledo Museum of Art

- Remarks and tour in the adjacent Garden (weather permitting), then continue in the church.
- Offer MultiFaith thanks for the harvest and fresh, local food. Meet other gardeners and share Faith Garden successes, challenges and plans.
- Learn from Informational Displays from festival participating organizations
- Enjoy a festive meal of chicken soup, vegetarian chili, pasta with pesto, corn-on-the-cob, mulled cider and assorted breads. You are invited to bring a garden dish to share (salads, vegetables, fruit or desserts) – but everyone is welcome!!
- Faith Garden Speakers – Mike Szuberla (Glenwood Lutheran Church), Sr Ginny Welsh (Padua Ctr of the Catholic Diocese), Marty Kaback (Congregation B'nai Israel)

Free and open to the public. Potluck dishes welcome, but not required.

Participating Organizations include:

- Glenwood Lutheran Church
- Center for Innovative Food Technology
- OSU Extension Office at Toledo Botanical Garden
- Toledo - Lucas County Health Dept
- Rep Marcy Kaptur's Office, Our City in a Garden
- Monroe Street United Methodist Garden
- Sisters of St Francis of Sylvania Garden
- Sofia Quintero Art & Cultural Center Gardens
- Muhammad's Mosque #91 Garden at Boston Pl
- Toledo Area Ministries - Feed Your Neighbor
- Toledo GROWS program of the Toledo Botanical Garden
- Toledo Northwest Ohio Food Bank
- Toledo Seagate Food Bank
- Toledo Division of Environmental Services, Rain Garden Initiative

Glenwood Lutheran Church

Congregation B'nai Israel Garden

Padua Center Vertical Garden

<http://gardens.multifaithjourneys.org> and <https://www.facebook.com/MultiFaithGrows> info@gardens.multifaithjourneys.org Woody or Judy Trautman 419-475-6535